ANOTHER LYNCHING DOWN IN FLORIDA

THREE NEGROES WERE EXECUTED BY A MOB.

The Colored Men Had Assaulted Miss Jeanette Allen and the Avengers Met Out Summary Vengeance With the Rifle and Rope—Other Criminal News.

Live Oak, Fla., June 12.—Three more negroes have been put to death by Lafayette county citizens.

The dead:

WILLIAM COLLINS.

TWO NEGROES; bodies unidentified. About 3 o'clock Tuesday morning Miss Jeanette Allen, 18 years old, and the belle of Lafayette county, was awakened by noise in her room. As she moved her arm was clutched by a negro, whom she recognized as William Collins, one of her father's employees. The negro threatened the girl with death if she made a noise, but she gave a scream which alarmed the household and caused the negro to flee. Collins about nightfall was captured and was identified by Miss Adams, but while preparations were being made to lynch him he escaped. Saturday, and Saturday night the negro was pursued. The chase led through the phosphate region, where negroes are numerous, and two of Collins' friends attempted to conceal him.

These two negroes were shot by the pursuers and their bodies were placed on the railway track, where they were cut to pieces by passing trains. The mangled remains of these two negroes were discovered Sunday morning. Several trains had passed over the bodies and identification was impossible. Collins, the assailant of Miss Allen, was recaptured by the pursuers early Sunday morning. He was taken to the Allen home and notices sent out for people to gather to aid in lynching him.

A great crowd assembled at noon Sunday and Collins was taken to the bank of a river, where he was hanged and his body riddled with bullets. The corpse was then cut down, weighted with stones, and thrown into the river.

In eighteen months fourteen negroes have been put to death in Lafayette county. In November an offense was committed and for this crime eight negroes were killed in the course of a few months. In May Miss Armstrong was murdered, for which three negroes were put to death.

PROTECTED FROM LYNCHERS.

Man Concealed in the Indianapolis Jail Far from Pursuers.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 12.—It was accidentally discovered here yesterday that Alvan Boo, who assaulted Miss May Newman near Covington, last week, is in jail in this city, having been brought here to prevent the Fountain county mob from hanging him. He was spirited away from Covington by the sheriff and taken to Crawfordsville, but it was there learned that 1,200 Fountain county farmers were after him and had sworn to hang him, and he was brought to this city. Though he has been in jail here for nearly a week, the fact was kept secret, as it was feared that the mob would follow him here.

BUTTE BANK ROBBERS FAILED.

Cashier Was Not Afraid of the Thugs' Guns.

Butte, Mont., June 12.—A man, who refused to give his name, entered the Silver Bow National bank here at the noon hour yesterday and demanded money from W. O. Thomas, who was in charge. The demand was backed by a revolver which was thrust through the paying teller's window. Thomas jumped behind the counter, grabbed a revolver and fired six shots into the ceiling to attract the attention of people in the street. The robber ran out of the building and with his pistol ordered people out of his way.

A policeman heard the shooting and met the man running away. A battle took place between the two and was kept up for a block, both emptying their weapons at each other. A part of the officer's coat was carried away by a bullet, but otherwise no damage was done. The robber was captured by a deputy sheriff. He is a stranger here, having arrived ten days ago, along with a gang of safe-blowers. He secured no money.

The officers of the bank gave the policeman and deputy sheriff $100 each for their work. The bankers had heard that an attempt would be made to rob them, but paid little attention to the warning.

MOTHER'S MURDEROUS DEED.

Mrs. Annie Becker Kills Herself and Two Children.

St. Louis, Mich., June 12.—Mrs. Annie Becker, a German, aged 34, killed her two children, a boy and a girl, aged 4 and 5, respectively, and then took her own life yesterday. Becker left the house for the train in the morning with her wife's sister, who returned to her home in Minnesota. From the train he went to the mill. His father-in-law returned to the house, but found all of the doors locked. Becker was sent for. He broke in the doors and found his wife and two children dead in the cellar, the little ones with bullets through their foreheads. A third bullet had pierced the woman's brain. It is thought she was insane.

Indiana Bank.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 12.—The Bank of Commerce yesterday suspended business. William Bossom, the cashier, said: "We have simply suspended business for the present. We have deposited sufficient money with the Indiana National Bank to pay all of our depositors and no one will lose a cent." One year ago the bank closed its doors for a short time, and the Knight and Ladies' Union secured a judgment against it for $70,000, and a few days ago the Supreme court denied an execution against the bank.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Panic Occurs in an Iowa School House—Storm Does Damage Elsewhere.

Clinton, Iowa, June 12.—A heavy storm burst over here yesterday afternoon. Lightning struck the Seventh Avenue schoolhouse, containing 100 pupils, but none were seriously injured. Rain fell abundantly. There was a wild panic among the pupils. They rushed into the street pell-mell, some of them using windows as exits. When they saw the danger was over they returned to the building.

Sycamore, Ill., June 12.—A heavy wind storm passed over this city yesterday. A large hop-drying house belonging to C. O. Boynton was demolished. The large barns on the farms of N. L. Cottrell, James Maitland and Hiram Holcomb were blown down and a great deal of damage was done throughout the country.

Springfield, Ill., June 12.—A severe electrical storm visited this city and section late last night, doing some damage to the outbuildings. A high wind accompanied the storm.

St. Louis, June 12.—The hot wave continues in this city and at 2 p. m. yesterday the thermometers registered 96 degrees in the shade. Several prostrations from heat have been reported, but no fatalities have occurred. Light showers at 4 p. m. relieved the heat's intensity.

IOWA POPULISTS.

Silver Not to Be the Only Issue in the Campaign.

Des Moines, Ia., June 12.—The populist state convention yesterday adopted a platform which calls for the free coinage of silver, but along with other populist measures. The platform reaffirms the Omaha platform, calls for the free coinage of silver, and asks that all banks be required to give a security for deposits, calls for the inspection of workshops and factories, the readjustment of the salaries of public officers on an economical basis, and the imposition of a 10 per cent state tax on all contracts to pay in gold. The following ticket was nominated: For governor, Sylvester Crane of Davenport; for lieutenant-governor, A. R. Starrett of Humboldt; for supreme court judge, T. W. Ivory of Glenwood; for state superintendent of instruction, L. B. Tabor of Guthrie Center; for railway commissioner, E. J. Stason of Woodbury county.

Notre Dame's Golden Jubilee.

Notre Dame, Ind., June 12.—Notre Dame University celebrated in part yesterday the exercises of the golden jubilee of her founding, and her friends flocked in on every train to do honor to their alma mater. A brilliant array of clergy are present. Fourteen Bishops are expected, including Bishop Spalding, of Peoria, who will deliver the commencement address.

State Board May Be Imprisoned.

Iowa City, Iowa, June 12.—In the Keokuk Medical college case here three judges of the supreme court of Iowa, Robinson, Kinne and Deemer, overruled the motion of the college to quash the writ of certiorari issued by Judge Robinson. The application of the state board of examiners for a stay of proceedings in the superior court of Keokuk was denied. The members of the state board will be imprisoned for contempt of the superior court if they do not obey that court's recent orders.

Locomotives Destroyed.

Arkansas City, Kan., June 12.—The ten-stall roundhouse, shops, seven locomotives, Corliss engine, lathes and tools of the Santa Fe Railroad company in this city, were destroyed by fire Sunday night. The loss is estimated at $15,000, fully insured. The cause of the fire is said to have been spontaneous combustion.

RAIN SAVES CROPS IN MANY STATES

BACKBONE OF THE DROUGHT IS BROKEN.

Rainfall General in the Mississippi Valley—Crops Not Utterly Ruined May Yet Be Saved—Michigan Gets Good and Bad Weather—Hay Outlook is Bad in New York.

Chicago, June 12.—Unexpected rain, although only in scattered showers, which fell over the greater portion of the western Mississippi valley yesterday, has done much toward alleviating the downcast heart of the farmer. Up to late last night only two of the five Illinois weather stations report rain, but the rain area is now moving eastward, and the country where the crops most require it is receiving the benefit of some showers. Milwaukee was visited with a severe thunderstorm and had the highest rainfall recorded, 1.06 inches. Kansas City, where rain was greatly needed for the corn and oats, had a thunderstorm and a rainfall of .40 inch. Springfield, Mo., a light thunderstorm and a rainfall of .14 inch, in district suffering greatly from the drought. In Marquette, where it was much required, there was rainfall of .40 inch. Except on the southeast Atlantic coast, no rain was reported east of Chicago.

MOISTURE IN ILLINOIS.

Crops Not Utterly Ruined Have Received Much Benefit.

Bloomington, Ill., June 12.—Heavy showers fell in this vicinity late last evening. In the eastern part of this (McLean) county the rain lasted from one and a half to three hours, and set the creeks running for the first time in months. Much good has been done to the corn. Hay and oats are virtually ruined beyond salvation. The potato crop is almost an entire failure. The timothy meadows will not be worth cutting, and there will be a scarcity of clover hay.

Springfield, Ill., June 12.—A heavy rain drenched Sangamon county yesterday, breaking the drought that has prevailed for weeks. There is great rejoicing among the farmers. The rain will insure a heavy crop of corn.

Carlyle, Ill., June 12.—Yesterday was the hottest at this season of the year. The mercury registered 102 degrees in the shade. A most disastrous drought is prevailing in this vicinity. Crops of all kinds are in very bad condition. The rainfall during the last three months has been the slightest ever experienced here. A refreshing rain is reported from Pana and vicinity, and Princeton.

Nebraska Crop Bulletin.

Lincoln, Neb., June 12.—The crop bulletin for the week ending June 10 issued by the Nebraska experiment station, reads: "The week as a whole has been a very favorable one for the growth of crops. More or less rain has fallen in all sections, averaging for the state as a whole not far from normal. The cool weather has been very favorable for the growth of spring wheat and oats, which have continued to improve, and will probably in some cases make about a full crop and generally will exceed half a crop. Cultivating corn is general over the state, and in some cases the crop will insure a heavy crop of corn."

Good and Bad in Michigan.

Lansing, June 12.—The Michigan weather bureau in its weekly crop bulletin says that the weather in the upper peninsula and extreme northern part of the lower peninsula has been very favorable to all growing crops, there having been an abundant rainfall. In the southern half of the state, however, the general condition of most crops is the worst in years.

Reaches North Dakota.

Fargo, N. D., June 12.—Rain prevailed all over the wheat and cattle growing region of the northwest yesterday. It made certain immense crops of grain and grass. While the growing grain quickly recovered from the effects of the frost, no one claims that the damage will reach 10 per cent, and the great majority does not concede any damage excepting to flax and grain.

Hay Outlook Bad.

Canajoharie, N. Y., June 12.—Cutting frosts during May and the drought that has prevailed for the past several weeks show a marked effect on the outlook of the coming hay crop, by changing it from that of a prospective abundance to one indicating a yield below the average.

FOR A COMPROMISE.

South Dakota's Defaulting Treasurer Will Get Off Easy.

Aberdeen, S. D., June 12.—Attorney General Crawford, H. R. Horner and Charles T. McCoy met in consultation here last night, and it is reported that an agreement in the case of ex-State Treasurer was arrived at, substantially as follows: Taylor is to return and surrender himself, turn over all his property to the state, and take whatever sentence the court may impose. John T. McShesney of New York, also will turn over to the state all his South Dakota property. When all this is done, the bill was postponed until to-day after the reading of the journal.

Senator Salomon succeeded in calling up his department store bill, making classifications and grouping of articles.

After some debate the bill was defeated by a vote of 18 yeas to 19 nays. Senator Salomon gave notice of a motion to reconsider. The house bill amending the law in relation to tax sales was advanced to third reading. Senator Kingsbury's bill which absolutely prohibits gambling on horse races was advanced to third reading. Busse's bill amending the civil service act passed. It changes the present law so that the salaries of the civil service commissioners in towns of less than 25,000 inhabitants shall be $50 instead of $500 a year. The bill appropriating $104,000 for the erection of a hospital for the incurable insane passed. A recess was taken till 2:30 p. m.

Mr. Sneedler secured a reconsideration of the vote by which his bill requiring the United States flag to be placed on every schoolhouse or in every yard failed to pass. The bill was then passed—yeas, 87; nays, 23. Buckner's bill increasing the number of companies of the Illinois National Guard to eighty-eight so as to admit a battalion of colored troops was passed. Bailey's bill making rape a capital offense failed to pass—yeas, 52; nays, 33.

Ohio Prohibitionists.

Springfield, Ohio, June 12.—The prohibition state convention, now in session here, probably will nominate E. Jay Pinney, a Cleveland attorney, for governor, and R. S. Thompson of this city for United States senator.

Forest Fires Under Control.

Bradford, Pa., June 12.—The forest fire in the vicinity of Kane is under control and no further trouble is anticipated.

Appleton, June 12.—[Special]—Frank Reilly, alias Frank Reed, was arrested here today and taken to Oconto by Sheriff Connor. He is supposed to be one of the party who murdered Martin Baumgardner, the saloon keeper who was shot and killed in his place of business at Eau Claire June 7. FINE WORK DONE BY THE JUNIORS

JULIUS CAESAR PRESENTED BY HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS.

Production Was a Success In Every Way and the Youthful Actors Surprised Everybody By Their Excellent Acting—The Class Day Jokes
Will Be Played This Evening.

Janesville people went back to March 15, 44, B. C., last evening, and saw Julius Caesar, soldier, statesman, orator and writer, slain by Cassius and others in the senate house.

They saw Brutus, after his defeat,
fall upon his sword and die; they heard how Portia, the fair daughter of Cato Uticensis, destroyed herself by swallowing live eels; they listened to the address of Mark Antony over the dead body of Caesar and saw the sentiment of the populace quickly change as his burning words fell upon their listening ears; they listened to Cassius as he planned against the life of Caesar; they heard plots, flights of eloquence, and saw bloody deeds done.
They saw Shakespeare's great tragedy
acted by Janesville's high school juniors and they saw it well presented too.

It was a revelation.

Probably few people who fanned themselves as they waited for the curtain of the Myers Grand to rise last night, expected to see more than the ordinary commencement entertainment. Those who had seen the rehearsals said "wait a bit" but the average citizen dismissed the hint of what was to come, with the one word
"enthusiasm."

But they figured in error.

Production Surprised Them.

That the pupils of the Janesville high school could do as well as they did seems quite remarkable. True, they had been drilled by a most competent instructor, Mrs. Janet B. Day, but it takes more than theory to make an actor; talent is also necessary and histrionic talent is rare.
The enunciation of all the members of the cast was clear and distinct.
Not one word was lost by the audience, and, indeed, not one word did they wish to lose. Professor Johnson had the management of the stage and not a single bark confused the actors or annoyed the audience. The costumes and "make up;" were perfect.
Clarence Burdick had attended to the latter while the clothing of the cast had been left to a Chicago house and the garments were historically correct. All arrangements were perfect and Manager Stoddard's careful plans to keep the opera house cool had not miscarried. Prof. Huykes orchestra furnished excellent music, and in fact, nothing was lacking, either on the whole or in detail. It was a large undertaking and its production cost money, but it was satisfactory, and more than so.

The Cast of Characters.

The cast of characters was as follows:

Julus Caesar.....William Denniston
Marcus Antonius.....Charles Reeder
Octavius Caesar.....Frank McNamara
Cinna.....Edward Peterson
Marcus Brutus.....William Bonesteele
Cassius.....William Hamilton
Casca.....William Hamilton
Titinius.....William Hamilton
Trebonius.....Thomas Baker
Decius Brutus.....Bernard Palmer
Pindarus.....Sam Echlin
Metellus Climber.....Roy Sanborn
Flavius.....Harry Shurtliff
Popilius Lena.....Jay Bliss
Servilius.....Fred Blakely
Lucius.....Edward Williamson
Soothsayer.....Ed. Kay
Ensign.....Jennie Dudley
Portia.....Katherine Smith
Servant.....Anna Valentine
Soldiers, Citizens and Senators—Ben Cary, Carl
K. Golling, Walter Clark, Robert Knoff, Walter Merritt.
Matrons—Marcia Jackman, Helen Frichard,
Belle Stoddard, Alice Shearer, Irene Bennett.
Virgins—Mabel Palmer, Harriet Roger, Grace
Spoon, Alice Fenton, Luella Conroy, Grace
Nott.

Edward Peterson the Star.

Edward Peterson as Brutus was the star of the cast and that meant much.
He was natural, self possessed and well informed on his lines. His voice seemed especially fitted for the part
and he carried it out more than well
—it was, rather, artistic. Few amateurs could present that character in a manner that would even please an audience but Mr. Peterson went farther—he charmed them—and handsome bouquet that was tossed upon the stage during the fifth act, was an evidence of the fact.

Charles Reeder as Mark Antony,
William Bonesteele as Cassius and William Denniston as Julius Caesar also did exceptionally well and are entitled to all praise. Mr. Denniston was suffering with illness that compelled him to lie down between the acts, yet he carried his part with a finish that all admired.

Miss Katherine Smith as Portia, also did exceptionally well and was given a hearty round of applause. Her scene with Brutus was especially strong and her presentation of her part surprised the audience.

Miss Jennie Dudley's rending of Calphurnia was also exceptionally good and was quite a revelation to her friends. Miss Anna Valentine's part was also well taken, and in fact, columns might be written about the play and the players and still leave many deserved good words unsaid.

It was a success—and more.

Class Day Fun Tonight.

Tonight the pupils will turn from tragedy to comedy and mirth will take the place of tears. The "class day exercises" will occur at the Myers' Grand this evening and there will be several kinds of fun. A small admission fee will be charged—ten cents—and the house will doubtless be crowded. There will be no reserved seats, except for the juniors and they will attend in a body. The much talked of class costumes will be worn

and the class song will be a feature.
Those of the class who did not usher
last Sunday night will attend to that duty on this occasion and the affair will be public. The attendance will doubtless be large as the people have been rather curious about several things that it is said, will happen.

THEY THINK IT IS A SWINDLE
People of Janesville, Wls., Taken In By a Peculiar Scheme.

The Chicago Times-Herald of last Thursday had the following: "Janesville, Wls., June 6—Several merchant in this city are under the impression that they have subscribed to a swindle. An individual canvassed the city yesterday, introducing the consideration. He collected $2.90 from each subscriber and in return gave a receipt, which was not dated showing by whom issued, and was not marked in any way to show to whom it was given.
It was signed by the National Press
Association, and the holder was promised 10,000 coupons, which were to be given away to customers. The customers were supposed to be enabled thereby to go to book stores and exchange the coupons for periodicals and newspapers, including the leading Chicago dailies. The merchants are still waiting for their 10,000 coupons,
but have abandoned any hope of ever seeing them. The agent reaped a rich harvest here, and is probably working elsewhere by this time."

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL NEWS

A CHEAP buggy, as with every other article, must necessarily be made of cheap material; you perhaps pay a few dollars less for the vehicle,
which in order to make up the profit

must have his profit) comes out of the workmanship and material

School Commencement Comes Next Emerald Grove Will Celebrate the Fourth—County News.

Beloit June 12—[Special].—The annual graduation exercises of Beloit College academy took place last night, and Charles H. Sutherland of Janesville, was one of the graduates. It was the first class to bid farewell to the school, and a banquet followed the exercises. It is graduation time in earliest at Beloit and the next class to step forth to the world will be that of the high school, which will hold its exercises in the large First Congregational church next Friday evening.
This class is the largest ever graduated from our public school and consists of thirty-five, twenty-eight ladies and seven gentlemen.

The college exercises will begin next Sunday with the baccalaureate sermon on President Eaton, and close with a grand reception tendered by the incoming seniors to the outgoing class, and friends of the college in general next week Wednesday night.
This class members fifteen young men,
and they take great pride in the distinction
they will undoubtedly have of being the last class to graduate from Beloit college composed entirely of men; for with the advent of the next term comes the
"dear creatures in flounces" who will be admitted to all courses of the school.

THEY ATTACK THE OLIEO LAW

Milwaukee Attorneys Now Hope to Have It
Declarer Unconstitutional.

Much interest has centered in the law passed last winter in regard to the manufacture of oleomargarine and the prosecutions of several Milwaukee cases under its provisions. It is now promised that there is a sensation to be sprung by the attorneys in behalf of some of the dealers. It is to be claimed by the lawyers that the law in question is far from being clear or explicit and that it directly prohibits the makers of oleomargarine from using the same kind of coloring substance which nearly all makers of genuine butter now use. The particular section of the new law which will be attacked as unconstitutional,
is that it permits one class to do what it prohibits another from doing, as will be claimed, in section 3, which reads as follows:

Sec. 3. No person, by himself or agents, or servants, shall render or manufacture, sell, ship, consign, offer for sale, or have in his possession with intent to sell, any article, product or compound, made wholly or partially out of any fat, oil or oleaginous substance or compound thereof, not produced from unadulterated milk, or cream
from the same, and without the admixture of any fat foreign to said milk or cream, which shall be imitation of yellow butter produced from pure unadulterated milk, or cream of the same, with or without coloring matter; provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine in a separate and distinct form and in such manner as will advise the consumer of its real character, free from coloration or ingredient that causes it to look like butter.

It is the last two lines of this section which seemed destined to cause trouble and may result in the defeat of the aims of the law by its being declared unconstitutional. The lawyers will raise the question as to why a manufacturer of the imitation butter is to be prohibited from using the stuff daily used by butter makers to produce the particular yellow color not always to

to do right falls back into wickedness, and gives up his integrity, the Bible does not say he was overcome by the fascinations of the festive board, or that he surrendered to convivialities, or that he became a little fast in his habits. I will tell you what the Bible says: "The dog is turned to his own vomit again, and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire." No gilding of iniquity. No garlands on a death's-head. No pounding away with a silver mallet at iniquity when it needs an iron sledge-hammer.

I can easily understand how people, brooding over the description of uncleanness in the Bible, may get morbid in mind until they are as full of it as the wings and beak and the nostril and the claw of a buzzard is full of the odors of a carcass; but what is wanted is not that the Bible be disinfected, but that you, the critic, have your mind and heart washed with carbolic acid!

I tell you at this point in my discourse that a man who does not like this book and who is critical as to its contents, and who is shocked and outraged with its descriptions, has never been soundly converted. The laying on of the hands of Presbytery or Episcopacy does not always change a man's heart, and men sometimes get into the pulpit as well as into the pew, never having been changed radically by the sovereign grace of God. Get your heart right and the Bible will be right. The trouble is men's natures are not brought into harmony with the Word of God. Ah! my friends, expurgation of the heart is what is wanted.

You cannot make me believe that the Scriptures, which this moment lie on the table of the purest and best men and women of the age, and which were the dying solace of your kindred passed into the skies, have in them a taint which the strongest microscope of honest criticism could make visible. If men are uncontrollable in their indignation when the integrity of wife or child is assailed, and judges and jurors as far as possible excuse violence under such provocation, what ought to be the overwhelming and long resounding thunders of condemnation for any man who will stand in a Christian pulpit and assail the more than virgin purity of inspiration, the well beloved daughter of God?

Expurgate the Bible! You might as well go to the old picture galleries in Dresden and in Venice and in Rome and expurgate the old paintings. Perhaps you could find a foot of Michael Angelo's "Last Judgment" that might be improved. Perhaps you could throw more expression into Raphael's "Madonna." Perhaps you could put more pathos into Reubens' "Descent from the Cross." Perhaps you could change the crests of the waves in Turner's "Slave Ship." Perhaps you might go into the old galleries of sculpture and change the forms and the posture of the statues of Phidias and Praxiteles. Such an iconoclast would very soon find himself in the penitentiary. But it is worse vandalism when a man proposes to re-fashion these masterpieces of inspiration, and to remodel the moral giants of this gallery of God. *

Of all the works of Dore, the great artist, there was nothing so impressive as his illustrated Bible. What scene of Abrahamic faith, or Edenic beauty, or dominion Davidic, or Solomonic, of miracle, or parable, of nativity or of crucifixion, or of last judgment but the thought leaped from the great brain to the skillful pencil, and from the skillful pencil to immortal canvas. The Louvre, the Luxembourg, the National Gallery of London compressed within two volumes of Dore's illustrated Bible. But the Bible will come to better illustration than that, my friends, when all the deserts have become gradens, and all the armories have become academes, and all the lakes have become Gennersarts with Christ walking them, and all the cities have become Jerusalems with hovering Shekinah; and the two hemispheres will be clapping symbols of divine praise, and the round earth a footlight to Emanuel's throne—that, to all lands, and all ages, and all centuries, and all cycles will be the best specimen of Bible illustrated.

THE BELOIT TEACHERS' MEETING

Session Was a Profitable One to All Who Attended.

BELoit, June 11.—The Rock County Teachers' Association met at the high school building in Beloit on Saturday, June 8. The program was as follows: Forenoon session: Meeting called to order by Pres. Starr: piano solo by Miss Sophie Wiesend of Janesville, whose playing pleased the audience; a paper on "The Responsibility of the Teacher," by Miss Anna Duggan of Beloit, was full of practical thought and suggestions, and showed that Miss Duggan had given the subject much thought.

"Technical Grammar" was the next subject on the programme, presented by Miss Carrie Zeininger, of Janesville, who outlined the subject in a progressive and convincing manner.

The afternoon session opened with a vocal solo by H. C. Buell, of Janesville, which was rendered in a capital manner.

Charles Hemmingway, of Center, then took the floor, his subject being "The Coming Teacher." Mr. Hemmingway pictured the teacher of the past, present and future in his characteristic graphic and happy manner. His assertions were clear cut and convincing. Prof. A. J. Hutton was the next speaker. His subject was, "What has the Public School Right to Expect From the Public." The professor made a strong plea for the public school in an earnest and pathetic manner. Misses Miller and Royce of the high school, then favored the audience with a vocal duet that was highly appreciated. Professor E. R. Dorning of Beloit, responded to the subject, "Color in Animals" in a manner that proved that the professor was master of the subject. His address was well received and very instructive.

Prof. L. E. Gettle of the state department followed by delivering an address on "Libraries." Prof. Gettle made an earnest and stirring appeal for the support and need of school libraries and asked for the aid of patient and teachers in making the law a success.

The meeting closed by remarks from President F. P. Starr, who, in behalf of the association thanked those present for their attention and attendance, and especially those on the program, all of whom responded so cheerfully and well. He spoke of the benefits to be derived from teachers' meetings and urged all friends of education to use their influence in making them a success. Supt. Ross, Profs. Buell, Rote, Hutton and Hemmingway, also Miss Coyle and others took part in the discussions that followed each address.

Prof. Gettle stated that it was one of the most earnest and interesting meetings that he had attended during the year.

Mr. H. E. Fish of Gravois Mills, Mo., a practicing physician of many years experience, writes: De Wit's Witch Hazel Salve has no equal for indolent sores, scalds and burns. It stops pain instantly, heals a burn quickly and leaves no scar. C. D. Stevens.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1428-James III of Scotland killed near Bannockburn in Stirlingshire.

1802-Harriet Martineau, author and noted agnostic, born in Norwich, England; died 1876.

1806-John Augustus Roebling, designer and first chief engineer of the Brooklyn bridge, born at Mulhausen, BRYANT, Prussia; died 1890. Roebling settled in western Pennsylvania while a young man and soon became noted as a constructor of suspension bridges. The wire rope used in this work was invented and manufactured by him, and its efficacy as proved by his tests revolutionized bridge construction.

Many of the great suspension bridges of the country are the results of his genius. The plans for the Brooklyn bridge which he submitted received immediate approval, and the colossal structure was at once begun. His death in 1869 was due to an injury received while taking observations along the docks for the locations of piers.

1864-Entry of Maximilian and Carlotta into the city of Mexico.

1878-William Cullen Bryant, the poet, died in New York city; born at Cummington, Mass., 1794.

1884-Commander John Rodgers, U. S. N., retired, died at Oakland, Pa.; born 1823.

NO SCARCITY OF MONEY.

Money is a commodity, capital is property; the former represents convenience, the latter wealth. Property always commands money.

Wealth is estimated, not by bank accounts, or by the amount of money whether gold, silver or currency that a man carries around in his pocket, but by investments in land, houses, bonds and mortgages, or the long list of substantial belongings that go to make up the wealth of the country.

The accumulation of property is always commendable, but the accumulation of money for the sake of hoarding, is detestable, and miserly. There is silver enough and gold enough, and paper enough, for all practical purposes. The paper circulates more than the metal because more convenient.

It is worth one hundred cents because the honor of the nation is behind it. There would be just as much sense in issuing an unlimited supply of paper, when there is no demand for it, as there would be in issuing an unlimited quantity of silver on any basis when the country already has hundreds of tons of it that nobody wants. It isn't a question of bimetallism or monometallism, but it is a question of hard common sense.

The manufacture of any kind of money by the government, whether by the printing press or through the mints, does not contribute a dollar to individual or corporate wealth.

The only thing that is at all vital in importance, is to know that every dollar of any kind in circulation, is worth what it purports to be, its face value. The government just now is overstocked with silver, simply because by a law that should have been repealed long before it was, compulsory coinage in excess of legitimate demand, was enforced.

As a result the stock has accumulated, until it is not only a menace to the government, but to individual wealth as well. The supply is largely in excess of the demand and until some outlet can be found for it the production should cease.

The same business sense should be used that a manufacturer applies to his output. When the supply exceeds the demand shut down, don't fill up the factory and crowd the warehouse with more goods, for that is a waste of capital and may result in bankruptcy.

The American people don't do business that way, and the government that they have created will never be permitted to adopt that sort of policy.

It is fortunate for the country that property and wealth is more generally distributed than usually fails to be the lot of nations. This is due to individual thrift and enterprise, encouraged by the wise provisions of the best government in existence.

Against this strong bulwark of hard common sense, the clamor for more silver or more money of any kind, than the country needs for legitimate demands, will have but little impression.

The government is not a mill for the manufacture of money as some people erroneously believe, neither does it create wealth. The money held in trust is furnished by the people and every dollar of it should be worth par.

GOT THE BOUNTY ON THE WOLVES

Isaac Ferguson of Rockford, collects $30 from Rock County.

Isaac Ferguson of Rockford, visited County Clerk McIntyre this morning, having in his possession the scalps of three young wolves. He also produced a certificate signed by W. W.

Swingle chairman of the Turtle town board, stating that the wolves were killed in that town, so he secured the state and county bounty amounting to $30. Mr. Ferguson first brought the wolves into the clerk's office yesterday, they being alive, but having not complied with the law, County Clerk McIntyre refused to pay the bounties, at the same time surmising that the wolves had been captured on the south side of the state line.

PIPE IS GOING DOWN RAPIDLY Water Company Working As Fast As the Heat Permits.

The water company expect to complete the digging of trenches on the South High street extension this evening and the diggers will then be transferred to Madison avenue.

"Just wait until we get the gang at work out on Madison avenue, where there are no cross streets to interfere with our work," said Superintendent Mitchell of the water company, "Then we will show you how to lay water pipe."

This extension is from Highland avenue north to the city limits, about three-quarters of a mile. The intersecting streets do not cross Madison avenue in a way to interfere with the opening up of a long ditch and Superintendent Mitchell is confident he will have an easy time laying this stretch of pipe. The only difficult piece of work is in tunnelling under the celebrated Mole culvert. Here the ditch will go down deep, possibly twenty feet or more, in order to clear all the mason work of the culvert.

The weather is rather hot for the laborers and consequently they take a rest during the hottest part of the day and put in their time in the cool hours of the morning and evening. It requires a pretty rugged man to stand in the ditch and shovel under the hot sun of the present "spell of weather."

THE WORK OF CUPID. Richardson-McCarthy.

The words that united as husband and wife, Miss Sadie McCarthy and B. Richardson, were spoken by the Rev. R. J. Both have many friends in the city, the groom being employed as foreman at the Grundy warehouse.

PERSONALS FROM THE JAIL.

ANOTHER transient boarder bound for Waupun, arrived in the city this morning from Darlington. The prisoner was in charge of Sheriff Terrell, and gave his name as J. F. Martin. He will serve the next two years, for burglary, and said he had enjoyed the trip so far, except that the "bracelets" that he wore were a little too tight.

THE prisoners have no reason to complain of the heat at the jail, for the corridors and cells are as cool as an ice box. "These hot days have but little effect on us fellows," remarked a ten day boarder, "but it is a bit doubtful if we would get up a sweat if we could."

The railroad yards were thoroughly searched by the police today, but not one tramp showed up.

A message arrived at the jail that a drunken man was in the gutter near the corner of Dodge and Jackson street, but when the police arrived, they found that Officer Conroy had taken him home.

THAT BONNET OF S. B. SMITH'S

Beloit Free Press Comments on the Janesville Man's Millinery Work.

"That bonnet" bids fair to make Stanley B. Smith famous. The Beloit Free Press says: "Stanley B. Smith is one of the best known citizens of Janesville. Besides being president of the bank, he has now developed a talent for millinery work, and in his spare moments—and he has many of them—he wins many a smiling 'Oh, thank you so much' from his lady friends by the exercise of his rare taste and skill in that direction. It is said that it is the common exclamation at Janesville when a lady is seen wearing a particularly lovely hat 'That's one of Stanley's productions."

PRESENT AN OPERA IN THE OPEN AIR

NOVEL MUSICAL EVENT IS BEING PLANNED UP.

It Will Be Given Under the Auspices of Trinity Church Guild and July Third and Fourth Are the Dates Selected—Local Singers to Compose the Cast.

An opera sung in the open air. That is something we haven't had. But we are going to have it. And with 150 singers, too.

Arrangements for the event are now being made, and it promises to be the best musical entertainment yet presented in Janesville. It will be presented under the auspices of the Trinity church guild, and "The Little Tycoon" is the piece chosen. The production will be under the personal direction of F. C. Baker, of Chicago, who has drilled amateur opera companies in Janesville before. It is expected that the cast will be composed of one hundred and fifty voices, and the production will surpass anything of the kind attempted in the Bower City. While all the arrangements are not yet complete, Mr. Baker and Rev. Mr. Wotton, the rector of Trinity church have talked the matter over and canvassed the possibilities of the idea in a very thorough manner, and work will be begun at once.

Occur on July 3 and 4.

The opera will be sung three times, the dates selected being July 3, and the afternoon and evening of July 4. It will be an open air event and will be presented, probably, on the vacant lot in the rear of the Y. M. C. A. building. The ground will be enclosed with canvas walls but will not be covered, seats being provided after the manner of a circus tent. The cast will consist entirely of local talent and in addition to the musical features, there will be other novelties including a "plume dance" called the Queen of Sheba, a "tinkers' chorus" rendered by twenty boys and a "children's Japanese dance" by little girls.

The opera will be elaborately costumed, and as Mr. Baker is a thoroughly competent instructor, there is no reason why the performance should not be great success. Work will be begun at once on the piece as the time in which to prepare for the production is rather limited and a great deal of drilling and care will be necessary.

The boy was adopted ten years ago, by Mr. and Mrs. Donahue, and has never left his home before. The country about their place has been searched but no signs of the missing lad had been found. Mr. Donahue says he left the boy in charge of the house in the afternoon, and when he returned home at supper time he was no where to be seen. The police of this city know nothing of the whereabouts of the lad. He came from a New York foundling's home.

It was three o'clock this morning when the guests took their departure wishing their hostess many happy returns.

L. V. PAUL CUT BY FLYING GLASS

Gashed His Hand With a Broken Window Pane This Morning.

With the blood dropping from his left hand L. V. Paul walked into the office of Dr. Mills this morning. Something out of the usual line of accidents took place yesterday at Haveland & Son's tobacco warehouse. While Ole Johnson and Ellsworth Watson were handling a heavy case of tobacco, Johnson made a stab at case with a case hook, but instead of catching the case, he accidentally hooked Watson in the left hand, cutting a deep gash.

WOODMEN BEGINN PICNIC WORK.

Committee Appointed To Make Plans For Next Year's Gathering In This City.

Janesville Modern Woodmen have already commenced planning for their great picnic to be held in this city next June. Last evening, at a meeting of Florence Camp, a committee of general arrangements was appointed, consisting of J. D. Holmes, W. H. Ashcraft, Jr., F. W. Parker, J. A. Denniston and C. H. Keuck. The members of this committee will have charge of all the arrangements, and will make plans for the largest gathering ever witnessed in the state. The committee will hold its first meeting next week Friday. "We are commencing early," remarked the committee this morning. "But we have a great deal of work before us. We have got to consult with those who have had charge of the previous picnics to find out just what is wanted and then we can make our plans understandingly. You see we can profit by their experience. We will make Janesville people open their eyes when the crowd arrive."

FINE CONCERT TOMORROW NIGHT.

Musical Feature of Commencement Week Will Be Unusually Good.

The commencement concert to be given tomorrow evening at the Myers Grand, will be as good as money can furnish. All lovers of music may be assured that for the commencement concert nothing but the very best talent available will be secured. The Columbia Male Quartette is well known by some of our local musicians and they are very loud in their praise. The highest grade of music as well as the simple ballads will be executed in the best manner possible. When you know that good talent will procure, patronize it well, and more of like quality will be forthcoming in the future.

The young people went down on the street cars, and Superintendent Proudfoot did everything to make the trip a pleasant one. Games of all kinds were indulged in during the day and a picnic luncheon was served, after which the open car brought the children back to town.

SUNDAY'S SERMON
BY DR. TALMAGE
FAULT FINDERS WITH THE WORD OF GOD.

The Alleged Uncleanness of the Bible
Only the Uncleanness of the Hearts and Minds of the Would-Be Ex-purgators.

NEW YORK, June 9.—In his sermon to-day Rev. Dr. Talmage deals with a subject that is agitating the entire Christian church at the present moment, viz.: "Expurgation of the Scriptures." The text chosen was, "Let God be true, but every man a liar." Romans iii., 4.

The Bible needs reconstruction according to some inside and outside the pulpit. It is no surprise that the world bombards the Scriptures, but it is amazing to find Christian ministers picking at this in the Bible and denying that until many good people are left in the fog about what parts of the Bible they ought to believe, and what parts reject. The heinousness of finding fault with the Bible at this time is most evident. In our day the Bible is assailed by scurrilous, by misrepresentation, by infidel scientists, by all the vice of earth and all the venom of perdition, and at this particular time even preachers of the Gospel fall into line of criticism of the word of God. Why, it makes me think of a ship in a September equinox; the waves dashing to the top of the smoke-stack, and the hatches fastened down, and many prophesying the Foundering of the steamer, and at that time some of the crew with axes and saws go down into the hold of the ship, and they try to saw off some of the planks and pry out some of the timbers because the timber did not come from the right forest! It does not seem to me a commendable business for the crew to be helping the winds and storms outside with their axes and saws inside. Now, this old Gospel ship, what with the roaring of earth and hell around the stem and stern, and mutiny on deck, is having a very rough voyage, but I have noticed that not one of the timbers has started, and the captain says he will see it through. And I have noticed that keelson and counter-timber-knee are built of Lebanon cedar, and she is going to weather the gale, but no credit to those who make mutiny on deck.

When I see professed Christians in this particular day finding fault with the Scriptures it makes me think of a fortress terrifically bombarded, and the men on the ramparts, instead of swabbing out and loading the guns, and helping fetch up the ammunition from the magazine, are trying with crowbars to pry out from the wall certain blocks of stone, because they did not come from the right quarry. Oh, men on the ramparts, better fight back, and fight down the common enemy, instead of trying to make breaches in the wall.

While I oppose this expurgation of the Scriptures, I shall give you my reasons for such opposition. "What?" say some of the theological evolutionists, whose brains have been addled by too long brooding over them by Darwin and Spencer, "you don't now really believe all the story of the Garden of Eden, do you?" Yes, as much as I believe there were roses in my garden last summer. "But," say they, "you don't really believe that the sun and moon stood still?" Yes, and if I had strength enough to create a sun and moon I could make them stand still, or cause the refraction of the sun's rays so it would appear to stand still. "But," they say, "you don't believe that the whale swallowed Jonah?" Yes, and if I were strong enough to make a whale I could have made very easy ingress for the refractory prophet, leaving to Evolution to eject him, if he were an unworthy tenant! "But," say they, "you don't really believe that the water was turned into wine?" Yes, just as easily as water now is often turned into wine with an admixture of strychnine and logwood. "But," they say, "you don't really believe that Samson slew a thousand with the jaw-bone of an ass?" Yes, and I think that the man who in this day assaults the Bible is wielding the same weapon!

I am opposed to the expurgation of the Scriptures in the first place, because the Bible in its present shape has been so miraculously preserved. Fifteen hundred years after Herodotus wrote his history, there was only one manuscript copy of it. Twelve hundred years after Plato wrote his book, there was only one manuscript copy of it. God was so careful to have us have the Bible in just the right shape that we have fifty manuscript copies of the New Testament a thousand years old, and some of them fifteen hundred years old. This book handed down from the time of Christ, or just after the time of Christ, by the hand of such men as Origen in the second century and Tertullian in the third century, and by men of different ages who died for their principles. The three best copies of the New Testament in manuscript in the possession of the three great churches—the Protestant church of England, the Greek church of St. Petersburg, and the Roman church of Italy.

It is a plain matter of history that Tischendorf went to a convent in the peninsula of Sinai and was by ropes lifted over the wall into the convent, that being the only mode of admission, and that he saw there in the waste basket for kindling for the fires, a manuscript of the Holy Scriptures. That night he copied many of the passages of that Bible, but it was not until fifteen years had passed of earnest entreaty and prayer and coaxing and purchase on his part that that copy of the Holy Scriptures was put into the hand of the emperor of Russia—that one copy so marvelously protected.

Do you not know that the catalogue of the books of the Old and New Testaments as we have it, is the same catalogue that has been coming on down through the ages? Thirty-nine books of the Old Testament thousands of years ago. Thirty-nine now. Twenty-seven books of the New Testament sixteen hundred years ago. Twenty-seven books of the New Testament now. Marcion, for wickedness, was turned out of the church in the second century, and in his assault on the Bible and Christianity, he incidentally gives a catalogue of the books of the Bible—that catalogue corresponding exactly with ours—testimony given by the enemy of the Bible and the enemy of Christianity. The catalogue now just like the catalogue then. Assaulted and spit on and torn to pieces and burned, yet adhering. The book today, in three hundred languages, confronting four-fifths of the human race in their own tongue. Four hundred million copies of it in existence. Does not that look as if this book had been divinely protected, as if God had guarded it all through the centuries?

Nearly all the other old books are mummified and are lying in the tombs of old libraries, and perhaps once in twenty years some man comes along and picks up one of them and blows the dust off, and opens it and finds it the book he does not want. But this old book, much of it forty centuries old, stands today more deserved than any other book, and it challenges the admiration of all the good and the spite and the venom and the animosity and the hyper-criticism of earth and hell. I appeal to your common sense, if a book so divinely guarded and protected in its present shape, must not be in just the way that God wants it to come to us, and if it pleases God, ought it not to please us?

Not only have all the attempts to detract from the book failed, but all the attempts to add to it. Many attempts were made to add the apocryphal books to the Old Testament. The Council of Trent, the Synod of Jerusalem, the Bishops of Hippo, all decided that the apocryphal books must be added to the Old Testament. "They must stay in," said those learned men; but they stayed out. There is not an intelligent Christian man that today will put the Book of Maccabees or the Book of Judith beside the Book of Isaiah or Romans. Then a great many said: "We must have books added to the New Testament," and there were epistles and gospels and apocalypses written and added to the New Testament, but they have all fallen out. You cannot add anything. You cannot subtract anything to the divinely protected book in the present shape. Let no man dare to lay his hands on it with the intention of detracting from the book, or casting out any of these holy pages.

I am also opposed to this proposed expurgation of the Scriptures for the fact that in proportion as people become self-sacrificing and good and holy and consecrated, they like the book as it is. I have yet to find a man or a woman distinguished for self-sacrifice, for consecration to God, for holiness of life, who wants the Bible changed. Many of us have inherited family Bibles. Those Bibles were in use twenty, forty, fifty, perhaps a hundred years in the generations. To-day take down these family Bibles, and find out if there are any chapters which have been erased by lead pencil or pen, and if in any margins you can find the words: "This chapter not fit to read." There has been plenty of opportunity during the last half century privately to expurgate the Bible. Do you know any case of such expurgation? Did not your grandfather give it to your father, and did not your father give it to you?

Beside that, I am opposed to the expurgation of the Scriptures because the so-called indelicacies and cruelties of the Bible have demonstrated no evil result. A cruel book will produce cruelty—an unclean book will produce uncleanness. Fetch me a victim. Out of all Christendom and out of all the ages, fetch me a victim whose heart has been hardened to cruelty, or whose life has been made impure by this book. Show me one. One of the best families I ever knew, for thirty or forty years, morning and evening, had all the members gathered together, and the servants of the household, and the strangers that happened to be within the gates—twice a day, without leaving out a chapter or a verse, they read this holy book, morning by morning, night by night. Not only the elder children, but the little child who could just spell her way through the verse while her mother helped her. The father beginning and reading one verse, then all the members of the family in turn reading a verse. The father maintained his integrity, the mother maintained her integrity, the sons grew up and entered professions and commercial life, adorning every sphere in the life in which they lived, and the daughters went into families where Christ was honored, and all that was good and pure and righteous reigned perpetually. For thirty years that family endured the Scriptures. Not one of them ruined by them.

Now, if you will tell me of a family where the Bible has been read twice a day for thirty years, and the children have been brought up in that habit, and the father went to ruin, and the mother went to ruin, and the sons and daughters were destroyed by it—if you will tell me of one such incident, I will throw away my Bible, or I will doubt your veracity. I tell you, if a man is shocked with what he calls the indelicacies of the Word of God, he is prurient in his taste and imagination. If a man cannot read Solomon's Song, without impure suggestion, he is either in his heart or in his life, a libertine.

The Old Testament description of wickedness, un-leanliness of all sorts, is purposely and righteously a disgusting account, instead of the Byronic and the Parisian vernacular which makes sin attractive instead of appalling.

When those old prophets point you to a lazaretto you understand it is a lazaretto. When a man having been

BETTER THAN A GOLD MINE.

Last month I cleared, after paying all expenses, $235.38; the month before $182.86 and have at the same time attended to my regular business. I believe anyone, anywhere, can do as well, as I have not a particularly good location and am not in a position to offer a guarantee that every family wants, it is very easy selling it. It seems strange that a good, cheap dish washer was never before placed on the market. With the Perfection, which sells for $5 to you can wash and dry the dishes for a family in two minutes, without putting the family in water. A good as people in the states, when you want an article that is why so much money can be made so quickly. For full particulars address The Perfection Mfg. Co., Station O, Elmgrove, Ill. I feel convinced that any lady or gentleman, in any location can make $5 to $10 a day, as every family will very soon have a dish washer. Try it and publish your experience for the benefit of others. ALICE O.

Lawn Sprinkling Must Stop.
The attention of water consumers using water for lawn sprinkling, is called to the rule of the water company. "That use of hose for lawn sprinkling is prohibited during fire." Neglect on the part of water takers to comply with this rule endangers the city, and as a matter of safety I shall require the manager of the water company to enforce the rule in all cases.

JOHN C. SPENCER,
Chief Engineer.

Janesville, Wis., June 8, 1895.

Notice.

The attention of water consumers is called to the public notice issued by the chief engineer of the fire department, requiring this company to enforce the rule which prohibits the use of hose during fires.

The rule for sprinkling permits the use of hose from 5 to 8 p. m. only, and in case of fire the water must be turned off at once.

The water company trusts that hereafter both of these rules will be strictly observed by its patrons.

The Dry Weather to Continue.

In our immense stock we are selling shoes at 50 cents on the dollar of the actual original factory cost. Think of it! CURES OTHERS

M. W. Scott, Esq., of the U. S. Marshall's Office, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "For many years my wife has been a constant sufferer from indigestion, sick headache, nervous prostration and all other complaints that the female sex suffer to, and, after trying many remedies and doctors without success, I persuaded her to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' She was so out of heart she reflected that it would be better that it would be like all the rest—of no good; but on my account, she said she would try it, so I got one bottle each: and before I had used half of a bottle she felt that it was benefiting her, and she has continued to improve ever since, and now thinks it the most wonderful remedy on earth for her sex, and recommends it to all suffering females. She has not been so well in years." I invite this without any solicitation and with a free, good will, so that you may let all who may suffer know what it has done for her."
